Tasting Notes: "This block-designated wine is intense in hearty aromas of black raspberry, dried mint and loamy earth. Spiced cake and sharp purple-flower flavors arise on the palate, but it's the dark, penetrating and focused boysenberry and dark-fruit flavors that command attention."

Aging: 100% French oak, 3-4 year- aged wood, very tight grain barrels, medium + toast with toasted heads, 33% new; 17 months evelage

Food Pairing: Mushrooms, Pork and Salmon.
