Tasting Notes: Ruby red with high robe, clean and bright. Deeply intense aroma, with an excellent combination of black fruit and spices, prunes, date fruit, black chocolate and toffee scents. The palate is well structured, dense, well balanced, with a high concentration of ripe tannins. Long and complex black fruit and spices aftertaste.

Aging: 12 months in French and Romanian oak barrels. Bottle: 6 months

Winemaking: Manual harvest is made at night in boxes of 26 lb. The harvest is carried out only by qualified winery staff selecting the bunches in each vine in the vineyard. During the fermentation, soft pumping and punching are carried out, and a part of the grapes is also fermented in French barrels of 132 (US gal lqd) open, making two racking per year without removing the lees, to give the wine volume, smoothness and silkiness. Refining in the bottle before leaving the cellar

Food Pairing : Goes well with cured cheeses, grilled meats, hunting meat and traditional stews.
